LOCATION

The property is located prominently upon Mawdsley Street within the heart of Bolton Town Centre. Access to the property can be gained from both Mawdsley Street and Chancery Lane, direct from Nelson Square. Nelson Square is a popular and established location, surrounded by bars, nightclubs, cafes and restaurants.

Nelson Square and Mawdsley Street make up one of the main thoroughfares leading to the Town Hall Square and Crompton Place Shopping Centre (due for extensive re-development). Bolton is well served by mainline train stations that run regular and direct services to and from Manchester.

The majority of the local property in the vicinity is commercial in nature, with a handful of student apartment and residential schemes nearby, including key developments such as 58 town houses at St Georges Road/Bark Street and 218 apartments and town houses at Moor Lane.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a substantial three/four storey mid-terrace property which has been internally altered and in recent years, been utilised as a licensed political social club and most recently, a licensed nightclub.

Access to the property can be gained from both Mawdsley Street and Chancery Lane (via Nelson Square). Internally, the accommodation is arranged over a number of floors, plus basement. There is a main staircase from the Chancery Lane entrance, providing access to each floor.

The second floor has WC facilities, together with offices and storage rooms.

The accommodation is generally open-plan (or where cellular in configuration, is capable of being reconfigured) to suit a range of uses and occupiers. There are ladies and gents WC facilities on the first floor, together with a number of offices.

There is a roof-terrace smoking area on the fourth floor.
